

Réunion Chroniques

Exhibition | Presentation | Discussion

29 April - 13 May 2009
The Photo Workshop Gallery

René-Paul Savignan, Maloyer, 2005

The exhibition opens at The Photo Workshop Gallery at 6pm on Wednesday 29 April.

The Market Photo Workshop, in association with the French Institute of South Africa, would like to invite you to Réunion Chroniques, an exhibition, presentation and discussion of work produced by photographers based in Réunion Island.

The exhibition explores the landscape, culture, and identity of Réunion Island. Photographers involved in the exhibition include François-Louis Athenas, Raymond Barthes, Thierry Fontaine, Yo-Yo Gonthier, Line Leclerc, Edgar Marsy, René-Paul Savignan, and Laurent Zitte.

On the opening night two presentations will be screened. The first, titled Bridges, features work by Andrew Tshabangu and René-Paul Savignan. The second presentation consists of photographs by students from the Market Photo Workshop, produced in conjunction with photographers Laurent Zitte, Frédéric Pothin and René-Paul Savignan.

The presentations will be followed by a discussion between curator Natalie Gonthier, the head of the Market Photo Workshop, John Fleetwood, photographers Laurent Zitte, Frédéric Pothin, René-Paul Savignan and students who participated in the project.

For directions to the Market Photo Workshop click here

For information about the Market Photo Workshop click here

For information about the French Institute of South Africa click here

FRAC Réunion