Applications are now being accepted for the 2009 Tierney Fellowship at the Market Photo Workshop.

The Fellowship will provide the successful applicant with the financial support necessary to research and produce a body of photographic work, in consultation with a mentor, over the period of a year.

The Tierney Fellowship was created in 2003 by The Tierney Family Foundation to support emerging artists in the field of photography. The aim of the Fellowship is to identify aspiring photographers, and assist them in overcoming the challenges that many face at the start of their careers.

There will be a briefing session at the Market Photo Workshop on Friday 22 May 2009 at 2pm. This briefing session will introduce the Tierney Fellowship, and the application process, to potential applicants.

The deadline for applications is 12pm on Thursday 28 May 2009.

All applicants must

- Be either current or past students of the Market Photo Workshop
- Be available to produce the work within the Southern African region
- Not have produced a solo exhibition before
- Be able to demonstrate an intermediate to advanced knowledge of the technical processes of photography

Applicants have to submit the following

- 12 – 20 images (300dpi in jpeg format. Maximum 700 pixels in height and 1000 pixels in width)
- An artist statement
- A brief biography and CV
- A project proposal.

The Tierney Fellow for 2008, Tracy Edser, will be exhibiting her body of work, titled Amelioration, at The Photo Workshop Gallery on 20 May 2009. Part of the exhibition will also be on show at the Michaelis Gallery in Cape Town from 22 May 2008.
